

KATIE ARCHIBALD,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN & FAMILIES,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION NO.
14-12983-WGY

YOUNG, D.J.

For the reasons stated below, the Court dismisses this action.

In a memorandum and order dated November 18, 2014 (#5), Magistrate Judge Kelley granted the plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and directed the plaintiff to show cause why the action should not be dismissed. Judge Kelley found that any claims against the DCF were precluded by Eleventh Amendment immunity.

On December 22, 2014, Archibald filed an amended complaint in which she offered further information about the employment incident in question and the actions of the DCF. She did not, however, address the issue of Eleventh Amendment immunity or attempt to add claims against parties who are not protected by the Eleventh Amendment.

However compelling the alleged facts of this case may be, Archibald cannot maintain a claim against DCF in a federal court unless she demonstrates that the state has waived its Eleventh Amendment immunity or that Congress has overridden in it. In the absence of such a showing, the Court must dismiss this action.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth in Judge Kelley's November 18, 2014 memorandum and order, this action is DISMISSED.

SO ORDERED.

/s/ William G. Young
WILLIAM G. YOUNG
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE